

How many people can publish for a track/series/team?

Written by gregg campbell

There is no limit. A person must first become a member and then apply to become a publisher for one or more tracks/series/teams. We will work with track/series owners on approval of these applications.